Verse 1:
[C]No one likes us, I [Caug]don't know why.
We [E7]may not be perfect, but [A7]Heaven knows we try.
And [Fmaj7]all around us, even our [Fm]old friends put us down,
Let's [C]drop the big one; [Gaug7]see what [G7]happens.

Verse 2:
We [C]give them money, but [Caug]are they grateful'
[E7]No, their spiteful, [A7]and their hateful.
They [Fmaj7]don't respect us, so [Fm]let's surprise them;
We'll [C]drop the big one; [Gaug7]pulve-rize [G7]them.

Verse 3:
[C]Asia's crowded, [Caug]Europe's too old,
[E7]Africa is far to hot and [A7]Canada's too cold.
And [Fmaj7]South America [Fm]stole our name,
Let's [C]drop the big one; there'll be [Gaug7]no one left to [G7]blame us.

Bridge 1:
[F]We'll save Aus-[C]tralia;
[F]Don't want to hurt no kanga-[C]roo.
[F]We'll build an all American a-[C]musement park there;
[G7]They got surfing too.

Verse 3:
[C]Boom! goes London, [Caug]boom! Pa-reee,
[E7]More room for you, and more [A7]room for me.
And [Fmaj7]every city, the [Fm]whole world 'round;
Will [C]just be another A-[A7]merican town.

Oh, how [D7]peaceful it will be; we'll set [G7]everybody free,
You'll wear a [E7]Japanese Kimono babe, it'll be I-[A7]talian shoes for me.

Coda:
They all [F]hate us any-[C]how,
So let's [D]drop the [F]big one [C]now.
Let's [D]drop the [F]big one [C]now.
