VERSE 1

D
You've been far away from me another land across the sea
G Gm
All this time my heart's been breaking, just waiting round and aching
D A
For a letter or a telegram telling me how sweet I am
G
You swear your heart will never roam, so til you come back home

CHORUS

D
I'll wear your colors my dear until you're standing right here
G Gm
Next to the one who adores you , whose heart is beating for you
D A
Like a lighthouse guides a shipwrecked sailor safely from the sea
G A D
I'll wear your colors til you come back home to me

D
I'm hoping you return the glow, I'm just making sure you know
G Gm
That no matter how, no matter when you come back to me again
D A
You'll realize this love is strong as it has been all along
G
For miles and miles can't come between the kind of love we've seen
