

Little Ghost, Original by White Stripes is in A, but G is easier.

INTRO [G]

CHORUS

[G]Little ghost, little ghost
One I'm [C]scared of the [G]most
Can you scare me up a little bit of [D]love?
I'm the [G]only one that sees you,
And [C]I can't do much to [G]please you
And it's not yet time to [D]meet the lord [G]above

VERSE

[G]The first moment that I met her
I did [C]not expect a [G]specter
When I shook her hand I really shook a [D]glove
She looked [G]into me so sweetly
And we [C]left the room dis[G]creetly
No one else could know the [D]secret of our [G]love

CHORUS

[G]Every morning I awoke
And I [C]see my little [G]ghost
Wond'rin' if it's really her that's lying [D]there
I lean to [G]touch her and I whisper
But not [C]brave enough to [G]kiss her
When I held her I was [D]really holding [G]air

CHORUS

[G]Though I try my best to keep it
There [C]really was no [G]secret
(slowly strum up and down) Must have looked like I was dancing with the [D]wall
(no strumming) No one [G]else could [C]see this appar[G]ition
(no strumming) But [C]because of my con[G]dition
(no strumming) I fell in [G]love with a little [D]ghost and that was [G]all

CHORUS

No, it's not yet time to [D]meet the lord [G]above[C][G][D][G]
