

Sedona- Houndmouth

Intro (4 counts each): D G D G

[Verse]

D G

The red sandstone it fell,

D G

right smack on top, of Sedona Arabelle

D

John Ford said won't you hop on in,

D G A7

in a stagecoach baby, gonna take you for a spin, oh oh, woah, woah.

[Chorus]

D G

Hey, little Hollywood, you're

A7

gone but you're not forgot.

D G

You got the cash but your credit's no good,

A7

you flipped the script and you shot the plot.

D G

I remember, I remember when your neon used to

A7

burn so bright and pink-

D G A7 D

a Saturday night kind of pink.

[Verse]

D G

The black list and its hosts

D G

came down so swift, it drove them to the coast

D

We're going to California, but were all out of work

G A7

I guess that's better than a grave and a hearse, oh oh, woah, woah

[Chorus]

[Verse]

D G

There'll be devils in their rush

D G

The duct tape makes you hush

D

Hey there Sedona, let me cut you a deal, I'm a little hung-over and

D G A7

I may have to steal your soul, woah, woah.

D G

Hey, little Hollywood, you're

A7

gone but you're not forgot

D G

You got the cash but your credit's no good

A7

You flipped the script and you shot the plot

D G

I remember, I remember when your neon used to

A7

burn so bright and pink, so bright and pink!-

D G A7 D

a Saturday night kind of pink.
