

"Snowbird"

Anne Murray

This Way Is My Way, 1969

arranged for UFC of COMO

F Am Gm C C7 F

F Beneath it's snowy mantle cold and clean,
C The unborn grass lies waiting for its coat to turn to green.
Am Gm The snowbird sings the song he always sings,
C And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom again in spring.
Am Gm When I was young my heart was young then, too.
C And anything that it would tell me, that's the thing that I would do.
Am Gm But now I feel such emptiness within,
C For the thing that I want most in life's the thing that I can't win.

Am Gm Spread your tiny wings and fly away,
C And take the snow back with you where it came from on that day.
Am Gm The one I love forever is untrue,
C And if I could you know that I would fly away with you.

Am Gm The breeze along the river seems to say,
C That he'll only break my heart again should I decide to stay.
Am Am So, little snowbird, take me with you when you go
C To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flow.

[Chorus]

C Yeah, if I could I know that I would fly away with you.
Bb C F
