Thunderstorms and Neon Signs

Wayne the Train Hancock (also covered by Hank Williams III)

DGThere's some big black clouds blowing in from the westDAI've been driving all day and I sure could use some restDGThere's a motel up ahead where I can unwindDADCause I sure love thunderstorms and neon signs

DGI grew up on the road from town to townDAMy daddy's line of work, kept us moving aroundDGI've got fond memories of the way things were back thenDADDADDADDADADThe warmth of the neon when a bad storm was moving in

GDWe'd listen to the opry in a small cafeGDWhen we stopped to get a bite along the wayGDWhenever I hear the wheels begin to whineGAIt takes me back to another time

D G I've got a real nice room with a radio and TV D A This here motel living is the only life for me D G It looks like it'll be raining for quite some time D A D Mixed with the lightning is the glow from a neon sign GDWe'd listen to the opry in a small cafeGDWhen we stopped to get a bite along the wayGDWhenever I hear the wheels begin to whineGAIt takes me back to another time
