

Carolina in My Mind

James Taylor

Intro: CF

Chorus

C F G
In my mind I'm gone to Carolina
F G Dm7
Can't you see the sunshine? Can't you just feel the G C Am moonshining? Ain't it just like a friend of mine to F D7
hit me from behind
C F C
Yes, I'm gone to Carolina in my mind.

C Bb
Karen, she's a silver sun you'd best
F G
walk her away and watch it shining.
Am F G Gsus G
----watch her watch the morning come.
F C D7 G
A silver tear appearing now, Im cry-ing ain't I?
C F C
I'm gone to Carolina in my mind.

C Bb
There ain't no doubt in no ones mind that
F G loves the finest thing around.
Am F G
---Whisper something soft and kind.
F C D7 G
And hey babe, the skies on fire, Im dying ain't I?
C F C
I'm gone to Carolina in my mind.

To Chorus

C Bb
Dark and silent, late last night I think
F G
I might have heard the highway calling;
Am F G
--- geese in flight and dogs that bite.
F C D7
And signs that might be omens say Im going,
G
I'm going,
C F C
I'm gone to Carolina in my mind.

F G Am
With a holy host of others standing round me

Em7 Dm7 F G
Still Im on the dark side of the moon.
 Bb F C
And it seems like it goes on like this forever.
 Bb F
You must forgive me
F C F C
if I'm up and gone to Carolina in my mind.
