	VERSE 1 G C Em You go; I will be behind you. G C Em And Dark Clouds never seem to find you D C Em And a day in Peckham Rye when the skies are blue D C G We could take the number 9 fly to Timbuktu.
	VERSE 2 G C Em Downfall it is barely raining G C Em And God knows I am not complaining D C Em And I've got my brand new shoes with the leather toes, D C G And I've got nothing to lose so I'll stand and pose 2, 3, 4 -
	VERSE 3 G C Em 4 Freefall, falling must be pleasing G C Em And I fall; only I'm not speeding. D C Em At a hundred miles per hour, on this splendid route D C G I could give you all you want, for a parachute.
	MIDDLE D Em You're sailing through a muddy lake C You say you've never swum before, take a deep breath you're going over board. G D Em You're swimming through a brown milkshake
	C I tell you time to drink it all, but no you're on a diet be responsible.

BRIDGE D G \mathbf{C} Em I see, I see you are, you've lost some weight that's clear to see D I see, I see you are, you've lost some weight that's clear to me I see, I see you are, you've lost some weight that's clear to see I see, I see you are, you've lost some weight and -VERSE 1 VERSE 3 MIDDLE INSTRUMENTAL G C Em G C Em D C Em D C G x2
