

"You're the One for Me"
Jonathan Richman
Jonathan Goes Country, 1990
arranged for UFC of CoMO

G C
If you didn't want me you shouldn't have been born
G D
That started all the trouble now the damage been done
Bm Am C D
You never should have been born 'cause now you're the one for me
G C
And if you didn't want me to follow you around
G D
You never should have showed up around my town
Bm Am C D
You never should have come to town 'cause now you're the one for me

G C
And it's too late 'cause now you're stuck with me
G D
Better give up, it's me you choose
C D C D
I say, "Ha ha ha ha! It's me. You lose."
G C
It's too late 'cause now my mind is set
G D
You better give up because I won't forget
Bm Am
That could never, never be
C D (last time end on G)
Well you're the one for me

G C
If you didn't want me you shouldn't have been born
G D
And we never should have met that morn
Bm Am C D
We never should have met 'cause now you're the one for me
G C
And if you didn't want me to want you this way
G D
Well you never should have seen my rock n roll band play
Bm Am C D
You never should have seen the lovers play 'cause now you're the one for me.
