MY GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

Henry Clay Work (1876)

[D] Vamp til ready

My [D] Grandfather's [A] clock was too [D] tall for the [G] shelf
So it [D] stood 90 [A] years on the [D] floor [D]
It was [D] taller by [A] half than the [D] old man him-[G]self
Tho' it [D] weighed not a [A] pennyweight [D] more [D]
It was [D] bought on the morn, of the [G] day that he was [D] born
And was [D] always his [E7] treasure and [A] pride [A] (But it …..)
But it [D]↓ stopped – [A]↓ short – [D] never to go a-[G]gain
When the [D] old [A] man [D] died [D]

CHORUS:
90 [D] years without [G] slumber-[D]ing [D] (tic toc tic toc)
His [D] life seconds [G] number-[D]ing [D] (tic toc, tic toc)
It [D]↓ stopped – [A]↓ short – [D] never to go a-[G]gain
When the [D] old [A] man [D] died [D]

In [D] watching its [A] pendulum [D] swing to and [G] fro
Many [D] hours had he [A] spent as a [D] boy [D]
And in [D] childhood and [A] manhood the [D] clock seemed to [G] know
And to [D] share both his [A] grief and his [D] joy [D]
For it [D] struck 24 when he [G] entered at the [D] door
With a [D] blooming and [E7] beautiful [A] bride [A] (But it …..)
But it [D]↓ stopped – [A]↓ short – [D] never to go a-[G]gain
When the [D] old [A] man [D] died [D]

CHORUS:
90 [D] years without [G] slumber-[D]ing [D] (tic toc tic toc)
His [D] life seconds [G] number-[D]ing [D] (tic toc, tic toc)
It [D]↓ stopped – [A]↓ short – [D] never to go a-[G]gain
When the [D] old [A] man [D] died [D] (But it …..)

OUTRO:
But it [D]↓ stopped – [A]↓ short – [D] never to go a-[G]gain
When the [D] old [A] man [D] died [D] [A] [D]
